

GOVERNANCE AND SUSTAINABILITY COMMITTEE CHARTER

Effective May 13, 2026

Purpose

The purpose of the Governance and Sustainability Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Merit Medical Systems, Inc. (the "Company") is to carry out the responsibilities delegated by the Board relating to oversight of the Company's corporate governance policies, including the Company's director nomination process and procedures, oversight of the Company's practices with respect to environmental sustainability, oversight of matters impacting the Company's image and reputation and its standing as a responsible corporate citizen and any related responsibilities required by applicable laws and regulations.

Membership

The Committee shall consist of three or more independent directors of the Board; provided, however, that, to the extent permitted by federal and state laws and regulatory requirements, upon the approval of a majority of the independent directors of the Board, the Committee may include one non-independent director. For purposes of this Charter, the term "independent director" means a director who meets The NASDAQ Stock Market definition of "independent director" as determined by the Board.

Members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board based on nominations recommended by the Committee and shall serve at the pleasure of the Board and for such terms as the Board may determine or until earlier resignation or death. The Board may remove any member from the Committee at any time with or without cause.

Structure and Operation

The Committee shall designate one member of the Committee as its Chair (the "Chair"). In the event of a tie vote on any issue, the Chair's vote shall decide the issue. The Committee shall meet at least once a year at a time and place determined by the Chair, with further meetings to occur, or actions to be taken by written consent, when deemed necessary or desirable by the Committee or the Chair. The Committee shall report regularly to the Board regarding the Committee's actions and make recommendations to the Board as appropriate.

The Committee shall be governed by the same rules regarding meetings (including in-person and virtual meetings), action without meetings, notice, waiver of notice and quorum and voting requirements as are applicable to the Board.

The Committee will maintain written minutes of its meetings, which minutes the Committee will file with the minutes of the meetings of the Board. The Committee may designate a non-director to serve as secretary at Committee meetings to record minutes.

The Committee will coordinate and consult with the other committees of the Board, as necessary, for the purpose of sharing information pertinent to the fulfillment of each committee's duties and responsibilities.

Committee Duties and Responsibilities

The following are the duties and responsibilities of the Committee:

- 1) Review the operation and size of the Board and make recommendations to the Board from time to time as to changes that the Committee believes to be desirable to the size of the Board.
- 2) Review annually with the Board the desired skills and characteristics of directors, as well as the composition of the Board as a whole, as contemplated by the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines (the "Guidelines").
- 3) Identify and screen individuals believed to be qualified to become directors of the Company, consistent with criteria set forth in the Guidelines. The Committee shall consider any director candidates recommended by the Company's shareholders pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Guidelines and the provisions of the Company's charter documents.
- 4) Recommend to the Board the nominees to stand for election as directors at the annual meeting of the Company's shareholders or, if applicable, at a special meeting of the Company's shareholders. In the case of a vacancy in the office of a director (including a vacancy created by an increase in the size of the Board), the Committee shall recommend to the Board an individual to fill such vacancy either through appointment by the Board or through election by the Company's shareholders.
- 5) Review the Board's committee structure and composition and annually make recommendations to the Board of directors to serve as members of each committee and committee chair.
- 6) Review the independence of directors, and report to the Board any material relationship identified in such review that the Committee believes would impair the independence of any director.
- 7) Develop, subject to Board approval, a process for annual evaluation of the directors of the Company, the committees of the Board and the Company's Chief Executive Officer, and oversee the conduct of the annual evaluations. The Chair, with the Lead Independent Director of the Board, will lead the discussion of the Board regarding the annual evaluation of the Board. The Chair will provide feedback to the Lead Independent Director with respect to his or her evaluation, as contemplated by the Guidelines.
- 8) Provide oversight of the Company's corporate governance practices and procedures, including identifying best practices and reviewing and recommending to the Board for approval any changes to the documents, policies and procedures in the Company's corporate governance framework.

- 9) Provide oversight of the Company's efforts to promote business operations which encourage environmental and social consciousness, including initiatives relating to sustainability, the environment and other social issues.
- 10) Review the Guidelines at least annually and recommend any revisions to the Board for consideration.
- 11) Review director compensation and benefits for service on the Board and its committees (including the principles upon which such compensation and benefits are based) at least annually and recommend any changes to the Board as the Committee deems appropriate.
- 12) Provide support to the Compensation and Talent Development Committee of the Board in its development and oversight of a succession plan for the Company's Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers of the Company.
- 13) Develop and oversee a Company orientation program for new directors and a continuing education program for continuing directors, and periodically review and update such programs as necessary.
- 14) Review any director resignation letters tendered in accordance with the Company's director resignation policy set forth in the Guidelines, and evaluate and recommend to the Board whether such resignation should be accepted.
- 15) Review and provide oversight of matters impacting the Company's image and reputation and its standing as a responsible corporate citizen.
- 16) Review this Charter at least annually and recommend any revisions to the Board for consideration.

Outside Advisors

The Committee shall have the authority, in its sole discretion, to retain and obtain the advice and assistance of outside legal counsel, director and executive search firms, sustainability and governance advisors and such other advisors as it deems necessary to fulfill its duties and responsibilities under this Charter. The Committee shall set the compensation and oversee the work of its outside legal counsel, director and executive search firm, and any other advisors. The Committee shall receive appropriate funding from the Company, as determined by the Committee in its capacity as a committee of the Board, for the payment of compensation to its outside counsel, consultants and any other advisors.

Delegation of Authority

The Committee shall have the authority to delegate any of its responsibilities, along with the authority to take action in relation to such responsibilities, to one or more subcommittees as the Committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion.

Performance Evaluation

The Committee shall conduct an annual evaluation of the performance of its duties under this Charter and shall present the results of the evaluation to the Board. The Committee shall conduct the evaluation in a manner it deems appropriate.
